

The NAB and it's broadcasters can all go to hell. They can't put out a product that the American people want so they try and force it down our throats through legislation. Leave satellite radio alone. Politicians stay the hell out of my life.      GOD BLESS AMERICA